

Disclosure Of Information Practices With Regard To Children
As Required By The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act

Personal information such as the name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, social security number, persistent identifier, or combination of various identifying elements, of children under the age of thirteen is not collected by the Lancaster-Depew Federal Credit Union or www.lancasterdepewfcu.org. If a child elects to send e-mail or other electronic request to the Credit Union, we may respond to that e-mail or request. However, the e-mail address of the child will be deleted and no personal information will be collected, stored or disclosed.
